

Literacy Trial Lesson

Experience how Aiwin students become excellent communicators in English!

— Lesson Content —

Through this trial class, students will be introduced to Phonological Awareness program taught to Aiwin students as part of their Learning Program in different levels. Student will experience language play as a powerful tool to gain foundational skills needed for literacy. With the use of research-based techniques such as rhyming, syllabication and manipulation of English language sounds, students will benefit and learn English in a systematic, sequential and multi-sensory way.
